

23 June 2008

Summary of responses to questionnaire by South African Law Reform Commission on the abolition of administration orders

1. The Commission wishes to thank the respondents who completed the questionnaire for their participation. Respondents will be advised of meetings to discuss the issues dealt with in the Questionnaire and further developments. The Commission received 52 responses of which 30 were completed online.
2. The tables on the following pages give a summary of the responses to the Questionnaire. The Commission also received comments (some detailed) which will be considered with the responses to the Questionnaire.

Capacity of respondents to questionnaire

Question 3: Number of years before order should lapse

Other questions:

1.	The National Credit Act 34 of 2005 should make provision for the following:
1.1	Over-indebtedness because of delictual claims.	Yes	No
1.2	Failure by a debtor whose debts have been re-arranged to comply with the debtor's obligations according to the rescheduling.	Yes	No
2.	If the amendments indicated in 1 above are made, administration orders in terms of section 74 of the Magistrates' Courts Act should be abolished as appropriate debtor relief would be available in terms of the National Credit Act.	Yes	No
4.	Do you support the amendments suggested in the Annexure?
4.1	Sections 79 and 86 of the National Credit Act	Yes	No
4.2	Repeal of sections 74 to 74I, 74K to 74T, 74V and 74W	Yes	No
4.3	Section 74U of Magistrates' Courts Act 32 of 1944	Yes	No

Answers to questions